School Districts will get one listing under Membership Directory, but full location listings under the city page.

Businesses with multiple locations can pay $50 more per location for additional address, phone number & contact listing.

Advertising & Sales of advertising is considered "unrelated business income of exempt organization" and is subject to federal income tax.

Your membership fees do not include advertising or sales of advertising space.

Your investment in the Wise County Chamber covers a one-year membership and is a tax-deductible business expense.

In kind gifts or donations of goods and services will be deemed one-half the value of cash contributions.

* Can be updated at annual renewal for an additional $50 fee.
